[Letter: 1945 June 24, London: Evelyn Waugh to James Lees-Milnes, Norfolk]

WHITE'S

June 24

Dear Jim

Many thanks for your note.

It is despair visit the cathedral church at Froyland, Hampstead.

The exterior is entirely delightful.

Yours

Evelyn Waugh

28th May

Darling Nancy

I write to the Isle of Mull to condole with you on your mother's illness. Now, with that letter in the post, I read the very sad news of her death. It must have made a great difference to her to have you at her side at the last. As you know, I didn't know her well but I thought Jim Lees Milne said everything very well. I am addressing this care of Detro. If she is with you, please give her my tender sympathy.

Love from

Evelyn
