THE SATURDAY REVIEW OF LITERATURE

Exile's Return, ar

Saturday Review News Pi

Interviewers meet Gertrude Stein on board the Champlain, as she returns for a visit after thirty-one years abroad. "Why don't you write as you talk?"

"I write as words come up naturally to me. I think I write as I talk. . . . I do talk as I write, but you can hear better than you can see."

"I like to talk to people. I am always wandering about the streets having conversations with people. I like single human contacts. . . ."
