DUEL THAT DIDN'T HAPPEN. The McCallagh Affair From the Italian Side.

The full story has not been told of Mr. Francis McCallagh's involvement with angry Italian patriots, who resent what they regard as biased and prejudiced descriptions of the man in Tripoli...

WHERE MR. MCCALLAGH FAILED. Then, according to the laws of this code of honor which never provided satisfaction for an insult...

"THE MATTER IS AT AN END." Following the publication, naturally, by the London Daily Sketch, of the account of the fight...

Mr. McCallagh is at present engaged in writing a book on the Italian War for a London publisher...

"I MUST HAVE A DUEL." The poet seemed to have expected a detail. He repeated the question several times...

"THE FIGHT POSTPONED." Mr. McCallagh for a moment thought of the possibility of a fight in the morning...

Edgar Allan Poe and T. Marnetti, leader of the forces of Italian futurism, has honored us with copies of all the publications of the Milan futurists...
