thoritie he held for lawfull wiues, according to their rights and ceremonies, and them hee kept within his Palaces and dwelling houses; and the children that came of them were had in reputation as more lawfull children then the others which hee had by the other women. It were a large historie to tell the order he had in keeping of them, and conuersation with them. And because this present historie is but briefe, it is left vnreheard.

The quantitie, value, and number of the tributes and kindes of things that his subjects did pay for tribute vnto him, shall be seene and vnderstood hereafter, as by the pictures and declarations is signified. And he made a straight order that the tributes which they payed him, should be fulfilled according as they were leued by him; for the fulfilling whereof he had in all his subject-townes his Calpixques and Factors, which were as Gouernors, that ruled, commanded, and gouerned them; and hee was so much feared that none durst disobey nor transgresse his will and commandement, but that they were kept and wholly fulfilled, because he punished and corrected the rebels without remission.

And in the sixteenth yeere of the reigne of Motezuma, the Mexicans had knowledge of certaine Spaniards, which were discoverers of this New Spaine, that at the end of twelue moneths there should come a fleet of Spaniards to ouercome and conquer this Country; and the Mexicans kept account thereof, and they found it to bee true, for at the end of the said twelue moneths was the arriuall of the said fleet at a Hauen of this New Spaine, in the which fleet came Don Ferdinando Cortes, Marques del Valle, which was the seuenteenth yeere of the reigne of Motezuma; and in the eighteenth yeere he made an end of the continuance of his Lordship and Raigne: in the which yeere he dyed and departed this present life. At the time when Motezuma came to his gouernment, he was fife and thirtie yeeres old little more or lesse, so that at his decease he was three and fiftie yeeres of age. And straightway in the yeere after his death, this Citie of Mexico, and other Townes adjoyning, were ouercome and pacified by the said Marques del Valle, and his Confederates. And so this New Spaine was conquered and pacified.

See before in Acosta and after in Gomara more large relations of Motezuma, in a wilde kinde of state and manietie, equaling in many things, in some exceeding most Princes of the elder world. First notice of the Spaniards.

A The number of 19. yeeres (18. yeeres of his raigue, and that other which followed in his Successor, wherein Mexico was conquered, as you may see in the next chapter) B the fourth yeere of his raigue in which hee began his conquest. C Motezuma. D the instruments of warre by which hee conquered
