JUL 14 1939

July 12 39 .

Dear Marshall

ah - how good , how nice is P E A C E , the croix de guerre with palms for you . I am glad I sent the letter , almost tore it up , because it seemed silly to me too , one should never write , but I would have never heard the wonderful news , why doesn't anybody tell me anything ? .

Incidentally , I think a superb news item will be that in one year , Victor has been published in :

Town and Country ,
Life Class
Omnibook
and Readers Digest , A record I think ,

For gods sakes , have my correspondence destroyed a volume of my letters even after my demise is nothing to look forward to . In case you need any of my penwork , my adress for the next three weeks is :

care of Mrs Bennet Bishop Pudding Hill
East Hampton .L.I.

L'enfant du Malheur .
