Series I. Correspondence
LETTERS TO VIOLET TREFUSIS

Polignac, Princesse de / [1941] Apr 12

I am all right - but feel the war strain terribly in my old eye.

12 April.

90 Bank of Montreal
9 Market
S.W.

He has been down - Love
S. M. M. M.

Poor Mamma - your letter is very sad - first because you say you mother isn't well - which disturbs me so much - and then because ~~you~~ you are going to Omb. again. The tone of the press there is so disjuncting that I can't imagine anyone going there now - especially you, who have never cared about their lullabies at the best of times. I seem quite off, les pates since

I heard from Slisabeth that Thalia had been forced by the Municipio to put up the Ivaska on my palazzo, on some special occasion.

I expect Slisabeth in a day or two - she came to Devonshire in March. she seems very happy with George.

I know you hate hotels - being then after your dear little hours must be depressing for you -

Is St. Louis a comfort? I hope so. I don't like to think you are sad and dipayrei -

Pari does not seem attractive -
- no plan does now of course.

Your Peggy's house - ex - mine - was on fire the other day but the great harm was done. I hope
