Dear Herbert van Thiel -

Many thanks for your note and the kind words about Talking Turkey. I, too, hope you do well with it. In fact, I'll bet I hope twice as hard as you do. When will it be published?

I look forward to seeing you in New York. You will arrive about the 12th or 13th, I suppose, so I'll hope to hear from you after those dates. My telephone number is (Princeton) 1-260141, and I am about 50 miles from N.Y., but I rather think I shall be in N.Y. about the middle of April in connection with the annual re-publication of my Poor Man's Guide to Europe. In any event, please call me when you are free, and we'll make some kind of a date.

No plans to come to England in the immediate future, sorry to say. But will inevitably return in June, of course. Meanwhile, all best wishes of the season -

- until April -

David Dodge
