Wilmington, N.C., Dec. 11/84

My dear Doctor Parker,

I promised myself the pleasure of meeting the gentlemen beneath at your house tonight: but Mrs. Spurgeon had invited some friends to dinner and is unwilling to allow me to absent myself. If I find myself released early enough I shall hope to be in at the end of your first-morning intellectual..

Very sincerely yours,
J. P. Spurgeon

Rev. D. Parker
