<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>&quot;Address to the orphans in the [--?] Asylum,&quot; Washington, D.C., 1862 December 24</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Published/Created Date</td>
<td>1862 December 24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rights</td>
<td>The use of this image may be subject to the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) or to site license or other rights management terms and conditions. The person using the image is liable for any infringement.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Generated</td>
<td>2022-04-14 08:33:05 UTC</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Terms of Use</td>
<td>https://guides.library.yale.edu/about/policies/access</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>View in DL</td>
<td>https://collections.library.yale.edu/catalog/16808780</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Addressee to the Orphans or the President, or coryphées, Dec. 24th, 1862.

Little Children! I come here to beg a few words to you on this Holy Christmas Day. This day when we remember that more than eighteen hundred years ago the Father of Heaven, the Son of God, was born into our world. [Luke 2:7-14] If you will read the second chapter of Luke you will learn that it was an occasion of great joy to all who have received our Savior, by all who believe in our Father.

To day, two thousand times two thousand and Children in America, England, France, and Europe. I am writing to ask how your relatives and friends are celebrating this day. How many little children have presents on this day? And thanks to our Father.
in Thebes, who had seen you.

As to many of good birth, we,
you dear children, are among the least of them all.
But whilst you are happy in the enjoyments of your youth and good things, I wish you to understand why this is just a fool's tale.

Explain the touch of life and manner of art, which warn the heart and brain. But for the Lord, pleased coming in to our world in mercy

for all men or could after this cold, enter with love and cheer in what labor, in the palms of blessing in our hands and Christendom with our hands.

Allude to the circumstances of this birth - he was laid in a manger, fled into Egypt. I have been the train in Caesars' garden which had opposite the mother of the infant

Jesus. Marry, the other... to His love to little children.

Judas, king in this year 7260
Jue's little children.
"Lead my lambs. Address a few words to the Nation, Gentlemen. Among the orphans children we may hope to form a world that all will become Jews in the Redeemer's Crown. It is an acceptable offering to the Redeemer for us, as a pure watch over their children under parental care, providing for their physical comfort, their education, and their religious training..."