<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>&quot;Address to the orphans in the [--?] Asylum,&quot; Washington, D.C., 1862 December 24</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Published/Created Date</td>
<td>1862 December 24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rights</td>
<td>The use of this image may be subject to the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) or to site license or other rights management terms and conditions. The person using the image is liable for any infringement.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Generated</td>
<td>2022-03-08 10:40:14 UTC</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Terms of Use</td>
<td>https://guides.library.yale.edu/about/policies/access</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>View in DL</td>
<td>https://collections.library.yale.edu/catalog/16808780</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Washington, Dec. 24, 1862

Address to the Orphans in the Little Children! I come here today for a few words to you on This Merry Christmas Day. This day which we remember that more than eighteen thousand years ago, the Angel Gabriel,

the Son of God, was born into our world—[Luke 2:7-14]

If you will read the second chapter of Luke you will learn that it was an occasion of great joy to the Shepherds, who have come to Bebras, and Children in America, England, France, and Africa.

I am sure that many little Children are celebrating this Merry Christmas. How many little Children are going to have a happy day! And thanks to our Father.
in Theorem. Who that received you is so many i wish with friends, your dear children, are among the foremost of them all—But whilst you are happy in the enjoyment of your togetherness good things. I wish you to understand why this is such a joyful time.

Explain the spirit of love and unity more that it belongs among those that have been. But for the Lord just.
Christ coming into our world and time, could after this life, enter into human been in white robes, white palmetto branches in our hands,

Allude to the circumstances of his birth: he was laid in a manger flung into Egypt. I have been the years in France, under which conditions represents the mother of the infant Jesus. Writing his letters to His love to little children,

Love to little children.
"Jed my lands. Address a few words to the Nation - to our bemy. Among the orphan children we may hope some would that all will become gems in the Redeemer's Crown. It is an acceptable offering to the Redeemer for me and my brother over their children under our care. providing for their physical wants - their education - and their religious training."