Dear Carl,

I asked someone to mail this to you. I heard that Berlin is great. Did you see Berlin? It’s beautiful.

I’m having fun. The Bridge in the Parmo for the first time and now I’ll tell you how much I think of you. It’s a "leaf" with clouds at the Garden at night. I’m in 2 at the Marina House. Love.

Yours,
Dear Carl:

I hope you have a pleasant stay here in Madrid. I'll be at home on Sunday at 5 o'clock. Have a good week.

On this spot for two and a half centuries Old Trinity has served our Lord Jesus Christ, proclaiming His Word, and providing His Presence. Thousands pray here before and after and during their work, in the Chapel of All Saints and before the high altar. It is God’s House, free and open for the use of all. Here, with services every day, clergy ready for informal consultation or sacrament, the Intercessions Box, the Tract Case, shelves of selected reading, and twice-weekly organ recitals, God’s “Welcome” calls His children.

Dear Carl; I’ll see what I can do about Roi Ottley... He half-way promised it to me, if you remember I told you. Pearl Primus I have only met, but I am sure it can be arranged and I’ll let you know. They say Jimmie D. has gone...

Langston wrote the poem, "Death of an Old Seaman". You have one of Cecil Cohen's manuscripts, it may interest you to recall.....

Have you any more of the CRISIS articles? I am out of them, and as I have my mind on several things for Yale, I should like to have a few to send away. You will get a Robeson program very soon - just be patient; it'll be along....

I am working at the American Theatre Wing this week - volunteer work - in the music contest division. Will you be at the Canteen tomorrow night to see the Fort Hamilton show, which I understand you refer to as "Strokes and Gropes"? I expect to come down.

I am sending you the brochure, "The Poems of Roy de Coverley". All I know about him is that he was born in Jamaica, B.W.I. He lived in New York City, but the last time I saw him was in 1936 in Copenhagen, Denmark. Blanche Dunn knows him very well; she may be able to give you more information, if you are interested....

"Songs in Silver" by Marguerite N. Abrams were sent to me by this young lady several years ago. I know her casually and that's all. Yes, she is colored....

Eugene Mars Martin was a promising violinist from a musical family. He died some years ago.

Claude had a slight stroke in June. He is out of the hospital. Yesterday he telephoned to say that he left. He is now trying to get up to New Milford, Conn.

A sailor, Howard L. Bass, came into the Canteen last night looking for you. He wants your autograph, and I told him I'd get it for him. He was here about three weeks ago and got Fania's but missed you by a few minutes. The enclosed pages are from his book. Will you write on one of them for him and I'll send it off.

Dear Mr. Jackman:

Thank you for your letter of August 3 regarding material for the James Weldon Johnson Collection at Yale University.

I am leaving today for Chicago on a matter of business which will require my presence there for the next ten days or two weeks. However upon my return I will be happy to look through some manuscripts and select something that I think might be suitable for the purpose. If this will be satisfactory you might drop me a line, if you will, within that time to my Chicago address (as above).

It is my understanding that the manuscript is not to be used for performance or any other purpose than the one as described in your letter and enclosed article. Otherwise it would be necessary to get permission from ASCAP of which I am a member.

With best wishes, I am

yours very sincerely

Dear Carl:

I was greatly surprised to learn that Countee is not in WHO'S WHO in AMERICA. I know he is in some WHO'S WHO... However did that happen, I wonder. Well, something will have to be done about it...

Archie Savage is working at the Club Alabam in Los Angeles... I had a card from Bobby Evans, and Jimmie Daniels wrote again; he has become a singer of spirituals. Why did Maria Esperanza have to go and leave? Edward III should be in town by this time. He said he was leaving Camp Wheeler for New York on Sunday.... Any news from him? I wrote the names of the celebrities on the back of the cards; I'll tell Van Jackson to look....

Who was it that came to speak to you last night at the Ballet? Katherine Dunham, Jane Wright? La Belle Rosette? I was so far away I couldn't make out.... But wasn't Hugh wonderful? And I love Dim Lustre!

I'll keep in mind what you say about libraries hereafter...

Friday night chez toi was gala, I'll say, and it was refreshing after a strenuous week... My thanks.

The Handy dinner is postponed of course...

Love.

I'll try to get you an Anderson program.
Dear Carl:

I know nothing about the Neighborhood Day Nursery of Harlem...
I'll find out...Did you get an Anderson program? I haven't been able to get one..Yes, Edward P. was operated on at Harlem Hospital a few weeks ago, and he is on the serious list. I may know some promising pianists.

Dear Dad:

I'm feeling a bit lonely now that you're gone. I was wondering if you might be able to send something in terms of information.

I wonder.

Dear Carl:

Countée had his tonsils taken out this afternoon.

No word from Pidge, although I hope to see him one of these Saturday nights...

I saw Grace Johnson at dinner time this evening and she said something about Mildred's nursery which opened on Sunday, I think, so maybe that's the one you asked me about and it is probably she who invited you...

Sol's wife, Dana something—or-other, was at one time in the Ziegfeld Follies...They have been together some years.

Yes, I was reminded of Allelia's parties the other evening, and it was fun.

Love.

Dear Carl:

The first annual exhibition of my collection at Atlanta opened there on Monday the librarian writes, and I enclose the article sent out by the publicity office of the university...

Claude McKay is out of the hospital again, and so is Countée...

Saw OTHELLO last evening and it is magnificent.

You may have a new bus boy (colored) on your Monday shift.

Love.

Dear Carl:

Here is information about Mrs. Sol Johnson, Jr. which I got from her herself last night:

Her name was Eleanor Dana. She appeared in the Ziegfeld Follies in 1921; in the Ziegfeld Follies as one of six special dancers from 1922 to 1925. Later she was in Louis XIV.

I am glad I got that little bit for you.

Love.
