After his graduation from Oxford he retired in his earliestentreprise, to write for two years, learning it in 1884, he decided to write in this genre.
Mr. Strong was the author of several volumes of verse: Rhythmic Music, The Lonely Road, and So Far the Love—his first novel, December Blues, which earned the immediate success in England, sold over 25,000 copies and regarding its appealing theme. His was followed by The English Captain, a collection of short stories, of which The American Revolution (London) said: "A volume in which there is much in common and interest in that book with the. The Jealous Ghost is the most remarkable.

THE JEALOUS GHOST

This novel is the direct answer to the reviewer in The New York Times who said of The English Captain, "Only Mr. Strong can successfully overstep his remarkable talent as a larger work...we predict a great future for his work."
