Crows Nov. 17th 1830

Dear Sister,

I received your letter on Sunday last, I should have written before, but I can find no notary before whom to sign it.

I have signed it but as there is not a notary here I sign it in presence of the nearest official I can find to a notary.

I am in a very small place and this is all I can do.

You know I will be perfectly satisfied with what ever you do so if this will not do you can fill out a blank and sign it same they will never know but what I signed it.

If you sell the place let me have some money as soon as possible. I am with the jubilee singers, but I expect to leave them probably this week. I can't agree with them.

I shall go to London as soon as possible. I shall not return till I have enough money to take the house back at my own name.

You can address your letters the same as before to Mr J. W. Butler Dawson St, Liverpool Eng.

I have not time to write all present to you. La La

From your affectionate, Pew
