A young man that would have been called a Welsh wilder, was a youth of noble birth. He was a friend of my youth and I was fond of him. I was married to his sister and went to live with him. He was a great friend of mine and we spent many happy days together. After my marriage, I went back home to my parents. I was a widow and my husband was gone. I continued to live with my friend and we were very happy. He sent me back home to my parents, but I was not ready to leave him. I was conversing with the young man who was my friend and I was happy.

your man John your flesh in my flesh to find uncleane when you come home man Dye of Cambridge the blind Highlander smellet hast feeling for a door in my Jants not curing any man a great Aed Dillent the Sivin
I am not asked &t of faporill ving all shall now dance to the virginals / you know were cant dance you intend to play upon? yes if your strings be in tune Harry the 14th to B: Bonner will you get embassadour to Sichia & say Bonner they will cut of my head: King. Jr cut of 1000 of these Bonner. None of them will fit my shoulders.
