If you like to send me two more copies of Mr. Curme's
- Charles book Tales of a Grandfather I think I can dispose of them advantageously to the publication
- I must have the copies before 12 o'clock to day if you think proper to send them to me because one is destined for a gentleman who is setting out on his travels abroad.

Is there any chance of a second Ed. for her?
Of its having embellishments, meaning wood cuts - If you have any thought of bringing out an embellished Ed. say so some time in your answer to this note - Yours truly
Maria Edgeworth
