VIEW

Of the manner in which several of the unfortunate prisoners of the Sacs and Foxes were put to death, and in two or three instances, in presence of either Black Hawk or the Prophet.

Young Lewis while a prisoner with them was compelled to witness a scene as above represented—an unfortunate fellow prisoner was doomed to die agreeably to their savage mode of torture. A pole was erected to which the unfortunate victim was secured, and to nearly half its height burning faggots were piled, when his tormentors commenced their war dance to and fro around the stake, which they continued until the body of the poor sufferer was consumed to ashes!
