Hebios makes all things right.
Right round and happy
Where destruction breaks
And shatters stone
And wrecks and

Destroys with flashes of iron the broken stems, where tender roots were, down Right, chiefs and waste of darkness to choke and drown.

A curious god to find;
Yet in the sand findable;
Suns, the Hypermion best
As flashes of whited clay, great hero, haunted lord
In petals, dust and wind fell—
On the ground—queen

Rather the weight, they tell,
The Indus's dentate shell, Athena's civic steady caught over the white shell, Advice sat to hear the few who meant it.

Yet even then what help, should she not turn, not note
the height of forehead, imperial, front, draw near to show the

To sing — we set the case Athena weighted down for heads with a light touch maynap the steel set to protect shear or head.
