Tradition that Rebecca Fort in Capt. Josiah Farnum's farm in Groton contained 2 acres; Dr. Eliot says he saw the Fort at Mohagoni judge it yr a 3½ acre.

Kókhopottungo in Gov. Saltonstall's fire in the Tribe of Wyandot at New Milford. Now there may be half a dozen families, Dr. Eliot says, that they were a pretty big people. Gov. Saltonstall rode the first ship to Court, & in Fairfield Co. there was a trial and an Indian was convicted upon the court appointed a double fine of £200 & 1½ yds. At the trial the Indian who are pleaded with oratory remarked that he talked all one Kókhopottungo. The Dr. Eliot who told me this story says he don't know what Kókhopottungo was alive at this trial, only the memory of him was fresh.

Dr. Eliot (who was ordained about 1709) says the Hobamackel Inds did not exceed a dozen families when he first came.
Stratford called Pequannock the biggest Indian Town; & Montauk, the Sachem lived there & died about 1735. In 1736 on his 79th year, at Golding Hill on Pequannock & died Oct 1761. Indian leased all the Ind. Land, for 999 Year to Mr. Lewis. Coerced with Mr. Hurd Polk.

Chickem's Sachem at Reading 1760, a Connecticut.

History of Chickem.

Chickem is said to have left Green Farm between Fairfield & Norwalk upon a Dispute and went back to Reading.

He became the head of his Paternity which continue to this Time 1761. About 1730 Mr. Conch lost his Right in Land.

His Assembly allowing the Claim of that Branch of Indians to the land Chickem was treated in the Purchase as a Sachem. And when the Assembly Vendetted & sold it to Mr. Conch, he was obliged to buy the native Right of Chickem, still referring to him by Children Right of Improp to the Bold. So that Chickem was not a distinct old Tribe. Old Chickem was old people 50 to 60 years ago.

Add this from the Will of Capt. Guilford, who formerly lived & married near Reading.
Dr. Ruggles says there lately died an Ind Man in Guilford when it was remarked that there remained alive only one Ind man more from Saybrook ferry to New Haven ferry. And that in the Dr. Memon there were several Wegways in Guilford—but now for a long Time. Besides the foregoing Man Indian there were a few Squaw with their children—Sachem Head called so because a Sachem's head was struck off in that Place.

Mem. Nov. 5, 1761. Col. Jonas Lydon lett me his father, a. 85, well knew old Gen. Paxton, who lived to Norwalk of the Park at the beach — of whom Mr. Lydon often told his son the story. That a Captain of a Man o’ War putting in here in quest for the Governor of Sheldon, being directed, found none one hot sunny day in the field by his house making Hay — having stiff off his shirt hanging on neck to his head only a little worser jacket. The Captain telling him he,aying the Gov. shoke hand & ask'd him into his house, took his shirt up at the end of his rake handle & saying it over his shoulder, & walked in, & dined himself, then treated the Captain very hospitably.

Bradford Shepherd told me the flock of sheep he was keeping contained above 3000—It had this year contained about 4000, but some were driven. He said Scape did not turn half the sheep to the flock & he judged there were 10,000 in all the 12 of Bradford.

"The clergy are extremely numerous—It is said that they actually possess a fourth of the revenue of that whole kingdom, which after all absolutely certain, amounts to several millions. But as to their number, it is not extravagant to say that Priests, monks & nun of all orders are upwards of one fifth of all the white people both here & in the other parts of Spanish America."

Europe settled in Amer. V. I. 240

"The Inhabitants of New Spain are composed of people of three different races; White, full, & Negro; in the social position of these. The Whites, are either born in Old Spain, or they are Creoles; those who native Spanish are mostly in office, or in trade; have a greater share of pride & distingision; for here they look upon the being Native of Old Spain as a very honorable distinction; and are in Return looked upon by the Creoles with no small share of hatred and envy."

"All employments here are held by natives Spaniards, they thrive but for a certain limited time."

Rev. Tho. Noyes settled at New Haven D. 1716. He preached the first sermon ever preached in New Haven before it was made a parish; which I suppose was 1717 for Mr. Wetmore was ordained Nov. 1717. He was in the Ministry 5 years nearly, declared for the Act of England Sept. 1722. My Father was ordained Nov. 11th 1724, continued in the Ministry 36 years, till his death May 14, 1760. Rev. Mr. Noyes died June 14, 1761. Oct. 73.
The College was moved from Saybrook to New Haven Oct 1717. There were Eight Trustees, at the Meeting when the Vote passed, of which 5 for N. H., at this Meeting Oct 1716 at N. H. Rev. Mr. Noyes of Stonington was present. Hartford Co. offered to give 6 or 700 for the College to be moved into That County. New Haven Donation given & offered Oct 1716 amounts to 1600. Mr. Noyes often was silent after his Nephew was settled at N. H. There were but 3 Trustees capable of acting in 1716 out of 5 were in the Vote, & of the other four one was absent in the head & Son then just settled at N. H. This was indeed a Tenure Trustee. Mr. Mathew of Windsor deserted Co. Office, but had by Letter formerly signified his Approbation of N. H. And Mr. Noyes of Stonington gave certain Intimation of his Mind for N. H. & afterward signed the doing of the Trustees. Thus 6 Trustees at least if we take the Approbation of Mr. Mathew before he left the Use of Reason, this is 7 for N. H. out of 11. Nov. 14, 1761. Dr. Moffat tells me that Mr. Scott came into N. Y. in 1760 and by Sir of Beale & Mr. Scott to reconnoiter the coast, promising to take an accurate survey of all of their present state. I was in company with Mr. Scott at Mr. B. Healy's. He had been an officer in the Russian service. Was at taking of Guadalou.

Col. Worthington tells me that the new County fell off to West of Hampshire and contained 700, say 13. D 1760 when it was made.

70 thousand numbers for 172; 1472 then contained 6 of every tribe. There was first divided into Egypt; the 70, 70 tribes of the former Indian Tribe, the other of the Xuan Tribe. The 70 Hill on it, 70 Not; to palm trees; all these seem to be correspondingly representative.

broke up & living with Col. Stansort at Charlestown. told me sundry Customs of Indians, since he can remember. He saw a Winding about of old Indian Way. The pair were shut up together a fortnight in a wigwam by them selves, the parents only bringing them Virtue. Then the parent of Indian sent a blanket to the young squaw which the re-dress, the pledge was mutually given & exchanged, it was to be kept in perpetuity. Then she made a feast, the old Indian talked to the couple, rejoiced & made many offer of the wedding concluded. They say, he saw when he was a little boy. They now mostly disuse the ceremony & act as the marriage according to Eng. Customs or take one another without ceremony. He said he himself was married, that he took his wife without any formality, except mutual agreement.
Antient custom if children were found culpable or rebellious or to strike a parent, punished by holding his hand on a stone & with a stone mallet pounded the hand, clean off.

Grandfather of present Ninecraff married a pe quotient of high blood. She got drunk at night of being waking found his junk lying near another junk & was jealous. he took his knife & cut three storkers on each cheek of his wife in devotion for Adultery & sent her home to the pequot. This happened after he had been married some years, had 2 sons Charles & George by his first. This happened the pequot who formed an attempt to avenge but Capt. Stanton prevented it. This was in old Warrington, life time about 45 years ago. The pequot begged the Enq to let them fight, because they said their blood had been disgraced. Blood for Blood.

I met with a young Indian—among other the Custom, I saw him to smoke, and I did what I could to please him. He talked freely to me, and I could discern from him he talked freely to the Indians even aboard the ship. My squaws, I am told, put to death the mother of Bastard. But at the same time, the youth of both sexes most freely indulged themselves in the act of copulation. That it was a custom for the young squaws to tell their mother I had ever before heard. The mother, her squaw, and I tell who had a relationship with them, at such a time, and who at another, how much they had given them by the young men: for the young squaw was always paid for it. And in case any failed, the young squaw when she next saw him in company would go up to him and take away his blanket or gun. It was often so great a delight to find that the young man was made any opposition. At Montgomery, I asked a squaw what I remembered that his father sold a gun to an Indian—which failing of payment as above, the young squaw came upon him to company, and took away his gun, and he did not resist—nor that the squaw afterward brought it to the father for a trifle, making him think she came by it. And that such transactions were frequent. And which it was deemed no sign of jealousy either to have carnal copulation, or to have it known.
Mr. Park told me that according to the Custom there was no manner of Restraint of the Boy or Girls agreed. I observed that Promiscuous Concessions must be often attended with Precaution, so one would expect that the greater part of Births must be Illegitimate, yet I had often heard that the Indians would kill the Mother of a Bastard. To this he said, they killed Bastards or their Mothers, if he believed would put to death both & they were caught before the English came. That Multitudes of Girls were caught & proved pregnant: and that they had orders to have a sort of old Women who procured Abortions by profession, that the Girls & their parents, & the old women took especial precaution were to force abortions which was a general Custom among them. Nevertheless, that every now & then they would go out their Term & be stolen of living Infant, being unable with all their Roots, powder, Drinks, to procure abortion. In these cases the young Squaws took care to be delivered alone in the Woods or among Rocks, Instantly, to make way with the fetus a, don't, done. And say he, the Rocks yonder about a Mile was, a place when they killed so many Infants, & their Bones lay about so thick, that they go by the name of The Bastard Rocks to this Day. We were told by a Man East of Co. Stanton, on the Road. I think he said he had often seen multitudes of Bones there. But he said it was a Thing that might be depended upon that they used to make away with their Bastard, he never dare to be seen with them. That this was the original Custom — the beloved the Indian would originally put to death any that appeared with Bastards. But that after the Eng. came these Squaws that lived with the Eng. to provide pregnant Squaws for the Eng, endeavored to keep them from being put to death. And that now for a long Time the Squaws being able to fly to the Eng. pretend to be very much pregant. When he nan'y do, it is done with great secrecy.

Especially the Case so that they never kill any Bastard. But with respect to Coition promiscuous, before Marriage, the Custom yet continues, upon the old footing of being paid for it. In last page but one my Note for Don Ciglié.

Thus what has been said of Ind. Charity & Support are both true in a sense; both in a fair sense. For the Ward. Regt. was, paying from Albany to Fort Stanwix, they encamped one Night by the Mohagon. The Sabbath came to Col. Babcock and made him an offer of all the young squaws of his tribe for the use of his regiment that night. The colonel thanked him for his civil hospitality but declined accepting the offer, alleging it would make his men so distracted as not to be under command. On what the proposal was not mentioned to the common soldier of the regiment, who knew nothing of it. But I recollect it in such a manner as I depend upon it for a fact. It is not improbable the like offer was made to the field officers of other regiments on that station and department. And it would not be strange if such a custom was nevertheless unknown to the soldier, the officer might be well acquainted with it.

Dr. Park further told me that the wampum mutually exchanged at the wedding was kept and in case any one was tired with her wife, he went and returned the wampum to her parents or next relations, and this was accepted a sufficient divorce. He thinks that the parent at marriage mutually exchange different belt of wampum. But I remember when a young man was courting a girl in Farmington (an Ind. place) it was said at last the wife with great difficulty she was brot to it “that the gave up her wampum” that is she complied, is allusion to a custom among Young and Squaws. Here to be inquired, whether the wamunum in which the young man's father pretended to the Squaw's father, was not circulated to the daughter, to upon her giving it up to the young to be kept as a pledge. The contract, the bargain finished, & the Wamunum, the Man might return to the parents & then he was divorced.

I have been often told, that a pregnant Squaw will turn aside, deliver herself, & take up the infant, & walked in a Brook, & walk off. They don't lie by the snows, but make little more about pregnancy & lying in that the Court.

The Achantic Englishman, Crooks, told me that after the ceremony of throwing the blanket in Maine-jah, one of the old Indians stood up, & said, or explained, & charged to this effect, "You (Man) must take good care to hunt Deer & fish & provide Meat for your Squaw. And you (Squaw) must take care to plant those Corn, bring wood & cook victual, for your Squaw." But this nothing about chastity or fidelity to the bed. But as far as I can learn, they were very strict on this head. So that a Squaw at times, put away her Squaw in case of Adultery, & if she was of the royal Blood, a
She was cut on the cheek with three strokes of a knife as a Mark of Infamy. This is about 45 yrs ago. Old Ninigret was marked by request to be put her away. Mrs. Babcock of Babcock, New York told me she has often seen Ninigret, Squaw the mark after he had put her away.

This is of Col. Lyndon's. Need of the Coronation of Ninigret which he said.

Mr. Moll of East Guildford was at Mr. Barlatt's, and relation of Reading to Templet Co. about five or six years ago. Mr. Moll was, moderator of Old Denmoe. He said the clerk ought to have sent to Mr. Todd's Chk. Mr. Todd gave it no sermon but was without a messenger neither he nor the clerk being sent to by the clerk of Reading. There was present another Minister Deaconally who had not been sent to nor sent to his Chk. Mr. Cape another Minister formerly but now pastor of no Chk. Mr. Mill, said all these to vote in the council of the council received & incorporated them as members of the Old Council. Mr. Todd remarked that he then said more than any county.

Extract from Guilford Town Record

Robt W Ruggil told me that Guilford Settle originally formed into a Body by public Covenant of civil incorporation in W Newman's Room in New Haven before they went off to Guilford. The Records were in part burnt some year ago — and among other things this Cov. or pact of voluntary Incorporation was burnt also.

Robt W Whittelsey of Milford tells me that Ch is gathered by seven for this reason given in the Record that in a Complain't to the offending offended brother make 1 the Brother to be taken in Company make 2. They are to tell it to the Ch which at least must be 4 more. 4 + 3 make 7.
At Rev. Mr. Harris's Ordination.

The letters were read publicly at the Town of Ordination.

1787, Mr. Whittetsey was ordained at Milford by a Council consisting partly of Ministers & Messengers of N.Y. & together with Mr. H. in Killingworth & Farmington & their pastor, Rev. Mr. Kilbey, Mr. Whitman, Mr. Whitman and Mr. Hemingway were moderators. On a question whether they should be considered as a Consecration, or Ordinal Council they resolved for the latter kind. Druggell told me.

In the pursuit of pensions 1637, one of the Sachems was overtaken at Long Pt. on the side of Sachem's head harbor, he attempted to swim across the Chopec, but was taken & found in a Court Martial, 'shot by order by an Ind. to arrows & his head struck off & stuck up on the branch of a great tree. Hence the pl. called Sachems Head.
When Sir Edmond Andros was uprasing in Connect.
the Assembly gratuitously gave lands to several Towns.
Particularly to Windsor, Hartford for all the New part of the Colony Town to Wethersfield. Afterwards, the Gov. returned it—The 1st part was settled by allowing the help to Wind-ser & Hartford. It remained the rest to themself, viz. a Town in the Colony & the other to half of Windsor.

The Senacas are estimated for number of warriors to be half the Offia Natives; the Onondagas, the greatest warriors; the Onoydas, the greatest Rogues; the Mohawks, the best Counsellors; Cayugas, piddling folks.

Tuscavores fierce, a warm apple not so good for counsel or form in war as the others.

Col. Sneyd Wylye.
Col. J. Pellett. (Halford)
New Haven Colony, June 4, 1639

A fundamental Constitution. "That all members only shall be free Burgesses, if they only shall choose Magistrates and officers among themselves, to have the power of transacting all the public and civil affairs of this planet, or make, repeal, law, deciding of inheritance, deciding of difference that may arise and doing all things of this nature." After this, in the record, thus:

"Whereas it was a fundamental agreement to make in a general meeting of all the free planters of this Towne on the 14th of the fourth month called New-Haven, namely that all members only shall be free Burgesses, or they only shall choose among themselves, magistrates and officers to have the power of transacting all public and civil affairs of this plantation of making laws, deciding inheritance, deciding of differenc't that may arise, and doing all thing, &c. Ministry of the nature. It was then agreed that by all the free planters that all those that hereafter would be rec'd as planters into this plantation should also submit to this fundamental agreement & testify the same by subscribing their names, under the names of the before-mentioned planters, as follows:

Up to be tried in the Air Pump. Whether Vinegar saturated with Salt of Tartar in an open vessel placed in the Air pump, will boil on expelling the Air?

At first I tried Mr. Wood hall to no effect this Exper. It was a much longer time before Bubble appeared then when we tried only Water, nor would it boil as Water yet there were some small Bubble. The saturation evidently expelled most of the Air.
