Dear T. T.

I believe the King to be now as well as is consistent with long illness & his unfortunate propensity to sit at home when he ought to be exercising but this as well as what I am going to tell you is merely report founded on what is reported by those who do know for I have not seen him since the levee.

to come a nail in the cut, produced imitation followed by S. Anthony, the quon came sharp seven or a day alarm = all this ended in renewed frost in the week which I believe is now abated; but as I said before I know nothing.

B. B. is still at Edinburgh they say.

Why don't you come & deal at the Travellers & discharge the folks in your Emporium.

God bless you
