NEW ORLEANS, WEEK OF JANUARY 6, 1901.
Matinées Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 1 P.M.

BLACK PATTI TROUBADOURS
Voeckel & Nolan, Proprietors and Managers.

A Farcical Absurdity in One Act.

A DARK TOWN FROLIC

(On the Banks)

Scenery: Creole, a dark opera.

Jean, Gabriel, a young man.

Eugenie, a girl.

Officer Girola, always on the hunt.

M. D. B. pair, a sailor.

Emile, a Frenchman, a member of the Celebrated Ysabelle Club.

R. Cole, stage Manager and coadjutor.

Miss Viola, maid.

Sister Inez, an old black woman.

Father Ned, the son's best friend.

Mme. F. J. La Calle, the woman's favorite.

Aunt Anna, a little black child.

Maria, the servant.

Charley, the cook.

Marie, the chambermaid.

Sister Mary, the nun.

Hilda, the peasant girl.

Carlotta, the opera singer.

Sister Mary, the nun.

Marie, the chambermaid.

Hilda, the peasant girl.

Carlotta, the opera singer.

(On the banks)

INTRODUCTION.

PART SECOND.

TROUBADOUR QUARTET.

JAMES WHALE, Conductor.

The World-Famed BLACK PATTI MELODIES, the Musical Genius of her race.

GRAND CAKE WALK, produced by Walker and Field's famous opera, "Red, White and Blue," a portly song of good bygone days and the present song for 1882, a production of the W. S. and J. A. company, written by the most eminent composer on both sides of the Atlantic.

CHINA, QUEEN OF CHINA, from the musical theatre of the same name, written by the most eminent composer on both sides of the Atlantic.

THE LIGHT WALK, created for the first time by the W. S. and J. A. company, the most successful song of the season, a hit with all audiences, will take place on THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

Alfred and Carl Waddell in their original creation, "Wren's Nest Too Young.

THE OPERATIC KALEIDOSCOPE.

The most noted operas and operatic numbers are here presented in their full glory, and a spirited performance of the famous and popular "Crescent Theatre" will be given.

Scenery: Creational, M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V.

LEONARD, Conductor.

The following selection from the standard and commercial opera are presented:

BLACK PATTI MELODIES, with the celebrated Madame M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V.

Laurel and Hardy, "Passionate.

Miss Maud, the famous and popular prima donna.

Cherubino, the celebrated tenor.

Mlle. V. and V. and V. and V. and V. and V. and V. and V. and V.

BLACK PATTI MELODIES, with the celebrated Madame M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V. and M. V.

L. A. Rays, Conductor.

SUNNYSIDE CANDY CO.

447 South Spring St.