THE FLIGHT.

Half frenzied by his dreadful fate,
He started up to flee,
And soon beyond his guards he fled,
And gained a neighbouring tree.
He climbed its high and rugged side
Like chimpanzee, so fast,
Until he gained a little branch
Which rested him at last.
But at the foot, all watching him,
Stood Elephants a score,
Which showed him to be in a fix
More dreadful than before.
