As the individual only becomes truly great by understanding well that he is but a part of the divine eternal scheme, and whose special life and laws are in harmonious relations with the general laws of Nature, the highest of all beings, and especially with moral law, so that their Nation, as The United States, may only become the greatest Nation, by understanding well that they are to be in harmonious relations with Nature and History, and, all laws and progress, and the creative thought of Deity, past, present, and future, thus uniting through all time. This will be accorded to the height, and expanded to the amplitude of their, by constantly renewing past time serving, and become a parts of the Present, and represent it, and (it may be) represent me Time, as close to the highest and be more one of "Time", and represent them.
