Begone dull Care.

A New Song.

BEGONE dull care, I prithee begone
from me,
Begone dull care, you and I shall never agree,
Long time thou hast been carrying here,
And fain thou would'st me kill,
But faith, dull care,
Thou never shalt have thy will.

Too much care will turn a young man grey,
Too much care will turn an old man to clay,
My wife shall dance, and I will sing,
So merrily pass the day.
For I hold it one of the wisest things
To drive dull care away.

Care now be gone, I prithee fly far away,
The rose and the lily you'll blight, full soon
they will decay;
Bring the flask, and the cask,
Mirth and joy for me,
Care shall turn out of the room,
With me he can never agree.
