

Yale University Library Digital Collections

| | |
|---------------------|--|
| Title | Queen, Titania, A midsummer nights dream |
| Date | undated |
| Rights | The use of this image may be subject to the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) or to site license or other rights management terms and conditions. The person using the image is liable for any infringement. |
| Generated | 2021-02-20 03:33:51 UTC |
| Terms of Use | https://guides.library.yale.edu/about/policies/access |
| View in DL | https://collections.library.yale.edu/catalog/2021679 |

QUEEN.

TITANIA.—A Midsummer Night's Dream.

On the moon's silver beams, the fairy Titania,
As yet, the gay Queen of delight,
To visit you, daughters and sons of Britannia,
Am here to preside for the night!
Now obey my commands, let the hours glide sweetly,
And each take their cake and their wine,
Let song, jest, and dance, go on jocund and featly,
And each toast his charmer divine;
And as your time flies, while fondly conversing,
Let the Lott'ry come in for its share,
Remember the Tickets are Fortune's dispersing,
Then haste and buy one for your fair.