A REPORT ON THE SECRET WORLD OF THE LESBIAN

95c

THE GRAPEVINE

JESS STEARN author of The Sixth Man

Why does a woman become a lesbian? What is her world of unnatural lust like? How can you recognize homosexuality? This shocking, thoroughly documented report gives all the facts.

"... not for the tender-minded ..." Cleveland Plain Dealer

BUT
YOU DON'T LOOK
LIKE A
LESBIAN!

The girl was young, softly pretty, with a well-developed figure. And she was in love—with another woman.

Unlike the male homosexual, the lesbian is usually able to conceal her sex drive. She moves unnoticed in society, working in every field—from Madison Avenue copywriter to small town beautician. She's frequently married and might even have children.

She could live next door to you, attend your church or be a member of your family—but you'd never know it. She hides her unnatural life from everyone, except other members of the "fourth sex," kept constantly on the alert by the lesbian grapevine.

"A straightforward, sympathetic effort to find out about the lives and emotional drives of female homosexuals..." Minneapolis Tribune
