Philadelphia Jan 4th 1846

Dear Sir

It gives me pleasure to be the medium of informing you that the sketch presented to Gen Andrew Jackson and placed in his room by the citizens of Boston afterwards presented to my deceased Father by Greenville Temple Winthrop has in my Fathers will been bequeathed to you. It is now in my possession and awaits your order.

Mr Winthrop's letter presenting it is now in West Chester Penn^a among some of our pictures I shall get it from there & forward it to you.

This duty I have delayed until this time thinking that Hon Calvin Blythe executor of my Fathers estate would attend to it.

With much respect

I am your friend & obt. servt.
