Brooklyn, Nov. 17th, 1868.

Walt Whitman Esq.

Dear Sir:

Father directs me to send to you $10 to pay for the engraving on the watch sent to day, the young man who sent it did not understand that it was to be prepaid.

Since the Election has passed over we Brooklynites have no other excitement of that kind till another Election but I suppose in Washington, sights are looking for the 4th of March to witness the inauguration of Grant.

On which occasion as on all past inauguration days, Washington will suppose presents a lively appearance and if possible I am going after consulting you & the folks to witness it. I suppose that is too far off.
Sends of yours.

Regards from folks.

 yours truly,

Alfred Wile.

Since the correction of the watch it has been very well. The fault was with a hitting of the hands against the dial or glass. It is still will be satisfactory now!
