AS THE GREEK'S SIGNAL FLAME.

[For Whittier's 80th birth-day, December 17th, 1887.]

As the Greek's signal flame, by antique records told,
(Tally of many a hard-strain'd battle, struggle, year—triumphant only at the last,)
Rose from the hill-top, like applause and glory;
Welcoming in fame some special veteran, hero,
With rosy tinge reddening the land he'd served,
So I aloft from Mannahatta's ship-fringed shore,
Lift high a kindled brand for thee, Old Poet.

WALT WHITMAN.
AS THE CRETE'S SIGMAF FLAME

[As the Crete's sigma flame, by Airlines banner too.
Tally of every hand-rafted battle strategize crew — trim
Point only on the front].
Frees from the hilltop like apprise and focus
Marrowing to route some special attention here
While toxic levels seemed the land held several
So I doit from american's ship rushing more
List high o'er Kindle and for dear Old Peter]
