Mr. Walt Whitman
Camden, N.J.

Dear Sir:

We have recently purchased at the auction Rooms of Messrs. Geo. A. Brande and the Plates of an edition of your "Leaves of Grass" from the Imperial of Chapin and Eldridge, Boston, 1860-61. Although the edition is not complete, as I understand to a copy of ten per cent. It seems to me that it would be better for all parties to have it completed. If this idea meets your views on the subject I would be willing to make you an immediate payment $250.00 on account and will return everything in my power to make the book good.
An early reply would oblige
