Walt Whitman in 1864
from Van Sideren copy of F. Franklin Evans (1842) Portraits of Walt Whitman
from life

given by W W to

H Buxton Forman

May 22 1890
There was an abolition or Anti-Slavery Anniversary advertised at Philadelphia for Dec 4, 1883. Mr. J. G. Ulffers was to be present. He did not come. Mr. Whitman - invented his photograph himself, and brought it to the meeting. He came to the house to dress and handed it to me saying 'I'm sure the meeting will be more interested if you show it.' There were about forty people at the meeting Dec 4. 1883. Charles H. Malden.
Profile Photo:
Walt Whitman

Dec 4th 1863

To Mr. Whitman
Walt Whitman
Washington D.C. - 1864