Miss Gertrude Stein.

Dear Miss Stein,

I am very sorry, but I am afraid this long book of yours would not be successful, and we cannot therefore see our way to attempt to arrange with you for its publication when it is complete. It would have given me pleasure to have a book of yours on our list. Perhaps at some future time we may have one. This we must let go elsewhere.

The manuscript is being returned to you to-day.

Very faithfully yours,

John Richard
