General Phenomena in November 1847

5

Toward evening, as the sun sets. (Sun set 5:00)

Anchors were set in the harbor. (Anchors were set at 5:00)

A strong wind from the north.

Re: P. Princ, from the bay to the town.

And after a short while, a strong gust of wind.

Arrived at the town.

Now 40 miles south from the town.

Tanner & Fisher in a boat.

The wind was very strong.

Pine tree fallen near the first line.

Green, yellow, and brown grass.

No wind at night.

A bishop and a pastor in the church.

All the lights in the town.

Wind to southwest.

No wind from the south.

From gust to gust.

A strong wind from the west.

A strong wind from the north.

30