February 19.

Tipasa - Algiers -

Dearest friends, I have read twice the wonderful book. it is a delight, and just fun ~~to~~ also - I wish I could hear you, and talk with you: tons of things to say. I love this pleasant country, Sun and excellent coffee for Paris - FRANCE, I must to them March 19th but in the course of next summer, I do hope to have a visa, and to able to run down to Belley - perhaps then, everything will be smoother! - Down here, people are so kept up with their work, they are all big gentlemen / farmers

that there is no question of war - the growing of tomatoes, and wine, fills their mind - if I can be "allowed" to go as far as Bellinon, I shall bring my manuscript - "The Diary of an Ignorant woman" and you shall know all the details of what happened in the summer too - work with my dog! - Send me a card in Paris of Playmon - in the meantime - it will be a great pleasure - thanks for the "Di'caci"! I have in Paris a shelf in my ~~library~~ library, 'with all your books! but you I miss so much' - believe me

always aff yours - and all my affectionate regards to Alice - Christine
