March 18, 1917 Monday afternoon
Mrs. R. Walter Stamm of 105 Edgewood invited a number of ladies to meet Miss Ida B. Wallis Bennett to hear her talk on woman's club work after and interesting talk of an hour it was decided to form a woman's club and the following officers were selected: Miss Wallis as President, Treasurer and a membership of eighteen names of which we rejoiced to meet at the same residence on March 19. 1917

Meeting called to order by the Vice President, Mrs. Johnson opened with prayer. Moved and seconded that name be Woman's 28th Century Literary Club Motion: Moved and seconded that name be 28th Century Woman, carrying clause stating effort of only accepted with added clause of whatever lends to improvement shall place as per the list of members. In the New Era of March 18th, 1819, the meeting was called to order at 4:15 by the Vice President, M.R. Johnson, who opened with the Lord's prayer, as the business was about to be transacted. It was suggested that we talk and wait for them and a few moments, and then they would come and bring them. They were then read and received Miss Stewart's suggestion that she had sent to the New Era for a call to the colored authors and that she would and she suggested that the New Era to read the list after which the member disagreed with the best author to begin with. It was moved and seconded that we begin with the New Era and that the New Era of March 18th, 1819, would be the first carried. It was voted that the New Era be the best and the New Era of March 18th, 1819, was passed. It was then moved and seconded that the chair choose the ladies to compose the program for the next meeting. The committee included Miss Stewart, Miss Smith, and Miss Johnson. The committee then went back to the New Era of March 18th, 1819, and Miss Stewart suggested that each member have something to say on 2:15 or read one of her verses. It was then moved and seconded that each member see as many as possible of the absent members and notify them where the New Era would be held.
The meeting was called to order by Miss Julia H. Kemp who read the minutes of the last meeting and after which the roll was called and it was found that there were 13 present and the dues taken were $1.25 and the roll was called and it was found that there were 13 present and the dues taken were $1.25 and it was decided to raise the dues and also to raise the price of the program for the next meeting. It was also decided that Miss Julia H. Kemp would make arrangements for the program for the next meeting. It was also decided that the program for the next meeting would be held in the afternoon.
Monday afternoon April 9th 1911

The meeting was open at 4:15 by the President, who then led in prayer, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The roll was called, and we had two present, and the roll taken in war. Then the President asked if there was any new name. Miss Toward then presented Mary Jones, whose name was then added, and unanimously seconded. Miss Hoth then read a letter from Miss V.R. Ruff, saying that she would like to read the Duties. The letter then reads, and it was thought that we were not for enough at that time, and seconded that Miss Hoth was the one. Miss Ruff gave me the minutes to a very fine paper by Miss W.R. Johnson on Frederick Douglass. Miss Marten also gave us a very nice paper on Homer. After reading some items, we adjourned for the night, and were taken in war.
Next meeting would be a business meeting the third of June at 7.30 at Mrs. A. Another paid & the hand at April 23d

Monday, Afternoon April 9, 1913

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Price, who read the minutes of the last meeting. We then called for the minutes which were not quite ready, which was very bad for the Society. I am sorry to say we have had the roll call and the dues taken in were $1.45, and we had 13 present, the first business was to be about joining the Federation. After the roll call, they were moved and seconded that we join. Mrs. Bickmore then said that she had seen Mr. Pitts and that he was very much interested in trying to raise some money to help Mr. Bryant marry. One of his friends and asked her if she would bring it before the club and see if they would be willing to help as he had been told that they had talked of doing. The lady then asked the ladies what they thought of it and if they were willing to subscribe and as they all were willing we had $2.00. Mrs. Brown then suggested that we give small entertainers for the coming social and have it in the Y.M.C.A. Building that is if we could get it. It was moved and seconded that we send and application to the Y.M.C.A. to see if we could have the same, it had a very interesting report from Mrs. Bickmore on the fire.

but that she did not feel to pass it through the hot weather.

Mrs. W. B. Johnson suggested that it would be a good idea to take some money out of the house and buy some goods to work on so that we could have some work in hand when we got ready to start our Day School in the fall.

She also suggested that one Monday be set aside for saving so we had such little time in our regular meetings, the sale money was not used by all, as there was no other business we listen to the program, and Mrs. W. B. Johnson accompanied by Mrs. Greenaway a short sketch of Jenny Lind by Mrs. W. B. Johnson. After which we listen to a song intitled critical on slavery in Brown by Miss Grace Worth, who also was an item by Mr. William Lewis in reply to Dr. Eckerman from the Boston Herald. He had 141 pairs of new minters and 101 pairs, we adjourned at 5:00 to meet at Mrs. Richardson's 65 Richard St. and June 6, 1871.

The Twenty-One Club met in the above date at the residence of Mrs. Richardson, and was called to order by the President. The rules were read and accepted, it being the first Wednesday in the month and the call was made and all were present and the club took in over $10.00. The President then asked what was done in the day and the ladies thought it would be a good idea to have a commit. formed to see about the sewing, and found no one moved and seconded that Mrs. A. Chaymard be the chairman of that committee of that work Mrs. W. B. Johnson, it was also moved and seconded that $1.75 be drawn from the first fruit maturail to work with.
Mrs. Skinner then made her report about the book call Robute rule of order, she said she was able to finish it for 20. As there was not other business we then listened to the question a very fine paper on selfish truths by Miss Martin. A short sketch of Benjamin Burnside by Miss W. Johnson.
She also said she presented Dr. K. Poite with the Bible, and that he said he was very much pleased with the sermon and thought the ladies had done fine. She also said that she spoke to him about her Sunday school and she thought it was very good and said he would come and give me a talk when we were ready to begin, these being no other business we said good night and went to bed.

The 21st Century Club met on the above date at the residence of Mr. Kelly, and was called to order by the president. At 10:15, the story of the Endeavor was the only matter of the business meeting that was read and it was moved that they be active with the insurance company. We had 10 members present and one and no visitors. The president made a statement saying that she met a member of the V.I.N. C. A. and had a talk with them about our club and he said that he was glad to hear that women were doing so fine. She then suggested that it would be very nice for the club to give the Library a night once a month, she said that she thought she would tell the club before he spoke to any other members of the club. But the ladies thought it was long as they could not let us have the use of three rooms that we might not help them in any way.
The vice president said that Miss Ruth had written to Mrs. Van Nostrand Smith and informed her the
The 28th Century Club met on the above date at 2:00, and was called to order by the Vice President, who had in the second prayer offered by the Secretary. The minutes of the last meeting were read and received. We held 11 present and the dues for the new year $2.50 and $1.50 in the year, making a total of $4.00. As it was the last meeting of the month we adjourned at once to business. The first item was to see if we should meet every two weeks during the winter and August or should we discontinue them until September, at the Pea and Sage, as were the most prominent members. We met at 4 o'clock, and the minutes were adjourned to 10 o'clock. To meet at the home of Mrs. M. C. Miller at 7:15. In the first meeting the second Wednesday...
In July and that we would have to decide what to do. They spoke about the delegate pension to the Convention and it was moved and seconded that we give him six dollars, with the intention of it being a badge for our club and what it should be. And the third thought a four leaf clover job would be very prudent, she also suggested that the chair appoint a committee to see about it and upon a roll call at the next meeting it was moved and seconded, and the chair appointed. Mrs. Bishopp and another lady made the necessary committee. The very next day the Constitution to the new mental, Mrs. Peirce read several articles from Roberts Rules of order and gave us all the things that she had for the present, and as there was no more business we adjourned to meet at Mrs. T. P. Peirce's July 11, 1917.
