

Yale University Library Digital Collections

Title	A Shropshire bargain, or, The doctor bit [graphic]
Call Number	823.06.00.02+
Creator	Williams, Charles, active 1797-1830, printmaker
Published/Created Date	[June 1823]
Rights
Extent of Digitization	Completely digitized
Generated	2024-07-25 19:46:05 UTC
Terms of Use	https://guides.library.yale.edu/about/policies/access
View in DL	https://collections.library.yale.edu/catalog/33220792

Caption: lwlpr12505.tif

Image ID: 33220795

A MEDICAL BILL, WELL PAID.

I perceive in this Bill you have charged Five Pounds for Medicines, and Ten Pounds for Fees. I will pay you for the Medicines instantly, the rest I will return when convenient.

London Publ June 1811 by J. W. Force & Pseudonym.

Medical Scraps 172

A MEDICAL MARKSMAN.

I am afraid Doctor the distance will make it impossible for you to attend my Mother — my dear young lady! not in the least! I happen to have another patient in the neighbourhood, so you see I am full till her Death with one alone! — Then you are too good a shot for me Doctor, so I decline troubling you any more.

London Publ June 1811 by J. W. Force & Pseudonym.

Medical Scraps 173

MEDICAL CONSOLATION.

You are bespoken

London Publ June 1811 by J. W. Force & Pseudonym.

Medical Scraps 174

A SHROPSHIRE BARGAIN or the DOCTOR BIT.

No demand! did you not say if I would attend your wife you had Five Pounds you would give me Kill or Cure? Yes sure, but she is Dead, so they did not cure her. — It was not in the power of Medicine to do that; I shall have Kill her then — certainly not — they had no claim upon me then, so you must walk off Doctor.

London Publ June 1811 by J. W. Force & Pseudonym.

Medical Scraps 175