[1846]

Vale Royal

Dec. ~~17~~th 20.

My dear George

I was fully prepared for the sad event announced in your letter, but, yet no words can express how heavily the blow falls upon me.

I never knew any other Father, having loved & venerated him as such from my very infancy, & had I been really his daughter, the unceasing goodness and affection which he shewed towards ~~to~~ me, could not have been greater.

Every consolation however which could attend the loss of such dearly loved excellence is left us & on this we must dwell with grateful resignation.

Lady Grenville has been very kind to me; pray give her my grateful thanks.

My heart is too full to add any more than my warm congratulations upon the birth of your ^{beloved} Grandson, & with every good wish for him & all belonging to you believe me my dear George your truly affectionate pto (A. Delamere)
